

URBAN RENEWAL AND REDEVELOPMENT

A Portland State University course sponsored by the Portland Development Commission
Spring 2010

COURSE INFORMATION

TOPICS INCLUDE:

- How does urban renewal's history affect planning and policies today in Portland?
- How is urban renewal funded in Oregon and Portland? What is tax increment financing?
- What is PDC's role in providing affordable and market-rate housing in the city?
- How is urban renewal performing in our neighborhoods – Interstate, Alberta, Gateway and Lents?
- How does PDC use community input in its decision making process?

INSTRUCTORS

The class is facilitated by Vera Katz who served as Portland's Mayor for over a decade and oversaw many PDC projects and activities.

Guest speakers will include elected officials, PDC Commissioners and directors, neighborhood activists, housing advocates, business leaders and private developers.
